 - Digital communication strategies; Big Data
 - Corporate culture and employee engagement
 - Social media and Internet/intranet practices
 - Investor relations and sustainability reporting
- Strategic corporate communication management
 - Strategic public relations and media relations
- Metrics & research for corporate communication practice
 - Transparency and non-financial reporting

Plan to Participate!

The deadline for submission of proposals/abstracts is January 31, 2018.

We encourage submissions from organizations, practitioners, scholars, doctoral candidates and graduate students for original research, case studies, panel discussions, or complete sessions devoted to an issue.

If your proposal is selected you/your co-presenters will be invited to present at the Conference on Corporate Communication in May-June 2018 at Baruch College/CUNY in New York City. You do not have to submit a paper to present at the conference, only a proposal/abstract. Additionally, attendees are not required to submit a proposal/abstract to attend the conference.

Proposal/Abstract Submission Guideline:

Include:

1. Title, summary (limited to 150 words), covering, where applicable: purpose, approach, findings, research, implications, and practical implications or applications, keywords, and paper type. Also, include contact information for all authors (name, position, organization, mail address, email address and phone).
2. Proposal/Abstract submissions should be single-spaced and use 11-point, Times New Roman Font with 1" margins. If you need to include citations, please list them within the same page using APA style. Do not use endnotes or footnotes.
3. Indicate if submission is for a special conference panel.
4. Indicate whether you are submitting a proposal/abstract with a paper to follow or a proposal/abstract alone. Paper guidelines will be posted on the conference webpage on www.corporatecomm.org.
5. Email proposal/abstract following the above guidelines to melodie.carli@baruch.cuny.edu or cci@corporatecomm.org.

Papers for inclusion in the refereed conference Proceedings (published before the conference) are due March 15, 2018.

Practicing professionals and scholars not presenting at the conference are welcome and encouraged to attend and learn the latest communication theories, best practices and benefit from the continuing education and professional development opportunities!
